

I've decided to participate in the Gateway Program and I'll be attending CNM.

What's next?

Apply to Central New Mexico Community College by May 1.*

Get started at cnm.edu/registration & make sure to send your ACT or SAT scores

Complete your FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid)

Online at fafsa.ed.gov or on paper by May 1.*

List CNM so they receive a record of your financial need to determine the financial aid they can offer, including scholarships and grants.

Determine your housing.

As a Gateway student, you may live on UNM's campus while taking classes at CNM. Check out your options by researching the following websites.

Housing.unm.edu

CasasDelRioUNM.com

LoboVillage.com

Sign up online for in-person orientation* at CNM by August 1.

We highly recommend attending a SOAR session (Student Orientation, Advisement, and Registration) which allows you to meet with an advisor and get help registering for classes. However, you may attend any in-person orientation.

Stay in touch with your Gateway advisors

Leslie Armell, College Enrichment Program larmell@unm.edu 505-277-5321

Eric-Christopher Garcia, CNM Connect egarcia77@cnm.edu 505-224-4000 x51631

Be sure to meet with Eric-Christopher before you attend orientation.

Attend Gateway Orientation

Thursday, August 10, 8:30am-12:00pm in the Student Union Building, Lobo A&B

Reach out to Leslie and Eric-Christopher with any concerns, academic or otherwise

We're here to help you succeed!

*In order to qualify for the Bridge Scholarship for your first semester, you must apply to CNM and submit your FAFSA by May 1 AND attend an in-person orientation by August 1.

 Gateway information sessions and Gateway orientation DO NOT satisfy CNM orientation requirements.
